

WRIT4710 3.0 The Ethics of Publicity

The course addresses the ethical and legal issues involved in making information public. How are the potentially conflicting demands of the institution and the public to be reconciled both within and without the organization?