

WRIT 3010 3.0 Practical Studies in Damage Control

A problem-based course in which students work in teams to develop and construct institutional responses, both internal and external, to extraordinary circumstances.